LOT 151 - Assorted Southwest Pottery Collection

Description

Collection of six Southwest-inspired pottery pieces, including miniature and medium-sized vessels and a decorative plate. The plate features a desert landscape design with cacti and mesa motifs, includes a hanging loop on the back, and is labeled with 'MEXICO.' The tallest piece is a ceramic pitcher adorned with geometric and dotted patterns in earthy tones. Other items include a gradient peach and white vase with a tribal motif, a turquoise small pot with etched geometric patterns, a blue and pink decorative bowl with angular design, and a miniature decorative bag with hand-painted detailing. All items are ceramic and handmade. Dimensions vary; the plate measures approximately 9 inches in diameter, as pictured. The pitcher is the tallest at about 6 inches high, as per the visual reference. Items are in good condition with minor wear consistent with prior handling or vintage nature. Location: H
